Minutes of the thirtieth annual meeting of the Classical Association, Northern Section.

The thirtieth annual meeting of the Classical Association of the Pacific States, Northern Section, was held at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, B.C., in Brock Memorial Bldg. on Dec. 26, 1940.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Prof. O. S. Todd, after which the program of the morning session, as inserted, followed.

Luncheon was held at 1 o'clock in the dining room after which the association reconvened for the afternoon session at 2 P.M. A discussion grew out of the papers on "Ris Romanae". A short business session followed at which the minutes were read and approved. The following resolution was presented and unanimously adopted:

"Be it Resolved, that it be the consensus of this group that we find the University of British Columbia and Mr. Todd charming hosts and that we like to be their guests."

The following officers were elected:

President - Dr. Edna Landros, Univ. of Ore.
 Vice - Pres - Mr. G. P. Black - Victoria College
 Victoria, B.C.
 Sec - Treas - Miss Catherine Calouse - Seaside, H.I.

The thirty-first annual meeting of the Classical Association of the Pacific States and of the Northern Section was held at the University of Oregon on December 29th and 30th, 1941, the president Dr. Edna Landros, presiding.

The first meeting was held at 2:00 P. M. in the Associated Women Students' room in Gerlinger Hall. Dr. Donald Erb, President of the University gave the address of welcome and presented the Association with a myrtle-wood gavel as a memento of the 1941 conference. Dr. William Read accepted the gavel.

The following papers were then given:

- | | |
|------------------------------------|---|
| "Digging up Athens" | Dr. Thomas Sidey, U. of Wash. |
| "Things of Wonder" | Frederick Combellack, U. of Ore. |
| "Philosophers and Poets" | Dr. O. S. Todd, U. of British Columbia |

Following this session a tea in Alumni Hall was given by the Classics Department of the University, and an exhibit of the Murray Warner Collection of Oriental Art was shown in the Art Museum.

At 7:00 P. M. members and friends gathered for dinner at the Anchorage. Dr. Solomon Katz read a paper on "Even Classicists are Odd". An illustrated lecture in Condon Hall was then given by Dr. S. A. Amyx, University of California, on "Greek Vases on the Pacific Coast."

The second meeting was opened at 9:30 A. M. by Dr. Wm. M. Read, "The Aeneid--a Masterpiece?" Professor J. L. Casteel, University of Oregon, spoke on "Ancient Rhetoric--Or is It?" Exhibits of the John Nash collection of Fine Printing and the Burgess Collection of Rare Books were shown at the University Library.

Third session opened with Miss Juanita Demmer, Medford High School, on "Emphases in High School Latin. Miss Mary Parounagian, Grant High School, Portland, Oregon, presented a paper on "Labienus, the Great Enigma."

At the business meeting, Dr. Wm. M. Read, University of Washington, was elected President of Northern Section; Father Whelly, University of Portland, Vice-President; Catherine Calouri, Seaside High School, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Classical Association elected: President, O. C. Crawford, Santa Barbara School, Carpenteria, California; Executive Committee, Miss Juanita Demmer, Medford High School, Medford, Oregon.

A tea was given for the members of the Association by Dr. and Mrs. Erb at the Presidents' House.

The above program was prepared by President Edna Laxdros, University of Oregon, and Vice-President Dr. Wm. M. Read, University of Washington.

Catherine Calouri
Secretary - Treasurer.

(The appended resolutions relative to the success of the meeting were presented and unanimously accepted. Our regrets were extended to Dean Parley for not being able to be present.

At the suggestion of the secretary, it was voted to raise the combined membership fee from $2.70 to 3.00 and from $2.00 to $2.20 to take care of the increased cost of publishing and to aid us in sending more bulletins.)

Whereas, the University of Oregon through its various departments has welcomed us to its Campus and through its friendly spirit has made us feel so completely at home, Be It Resolved, that we express our thanks and sincere appreciation to - Dr. Donald Erb, President of the University of Oregon, for his cordial greeting and the gift of a gavel, a needed instrument for our meetings; to Dr. and Mrs. Erb for opening their home to us; to the Classical Department and Dr. Edna Landros for the delightful and inspiring program, tea, and banquet at The Anchorage; to the Art Museum for the privilege of viewing the Murray Warner Collection of Oriental Art; to the Library for the exhibit of rare manuscripts and books; to the members of the Classical Association who have made this, the thirty-first annual meeting, the outstanding success it has been.
