CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION OF THE PACIFIC STATES
 NORTHERN SECTION

OFFICE OF THE
 SECRETARY-TREASURER

The 36th annual meeting of the Classical Association of the Pacific States, Northern Section, convened in Eugene, Oregon, on March 27, 1948. President Combella called the meeting to order at 10 A. M., and after a word of welcome, he introduced Mr. Wm. M. Green, University of California, speaking on Roman Views of History. This was Mr. Green's first appearance before the Northern Section.

Mr. Ludwig Edelstein, formerly of John Hopkins University, now of the University of Washington, likewise made his bow to the meeting, giving a most interesting talk on the Historiography of Posidonius, an outstanding Stoic and teacher of Cicero who made much use of Posidonius's history.

Mr. Benson Mates, a graduate of the University of Oregon, a student at Cornell, is rapidly completing work on his Ph. D. at Berkeley. Two of his former high school instructors as well as several from the University listened with great interest to his paper, The Elements of Stoic Philosophy.

The Educated Man according to the Isoratean Ideal as shown by Mr. Quirinus Breen, University of Oregon, was not too far from present aspirations for such an individual.

Following the luncheon at The Faculty Club, Mr. D. A. Amyx, University of California, presented an illustrated lecture on Some Recent Appraisals of Greek Sculpture. At the Eugene meeting in 1941, Mr. Amyx had lectured on Greek Vases on the Pacific Coast.

Mrs. H. D. Ephron, 'Femina Sola' on the program, then told of the Humanities course offered at Montana State University. Such courses serve well to introduce students to Classic periods of history, often influencing them to study Greek and Latin.

Mr. Robert Vosper, from the Library staff of the University of California at Los Angeles, was also speaking before high school and college instructors. His talk, The Greek Anthology - Some Thoughts on Translation, showed it is better to know the Classics in translation than not to know them at all.

A brief business meeting followed at which Professor O. J. Todd, University of British Columbia, and Dr. W. P. Clark, Montana State University, were elected President and Vice-President respectively; Miss Margaret Smutz, Portland, was reelected Secretary-Treasurer. The 1949 meeting of the Northern Section will be held in Vancouver, B. C. Miss Smutz and Mr. Green, Secretary-Treasurer of the Pacific States, gave short financial reports. Mr. Combella brought up the matter of the revision of texts and the group reported favorably on the work of the Association of the Middle West and South.
of the Ed. Policies Com.

A vote of thanks was extended the University of Oregon and President Combella for their hospitality, the weather, and a most successful meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Margaret Smutz
