Whereas, it is with a deep sense of grief that we have learned of the recent death of Arthur Sewall Haggett, Professor of the Greek Language and Literature, and Dean of the College of Liberal Arts in the University of Washington; and

Whereas, we keenly realize the untimely loss which has thus befallen the cause of Hellenic studies, sound scholarship, and sane living; therefore, be it hereby

Resolved, that we, the members of the Classical Association of the Pacific States in convention at Portland, Oregon, July 11-13, 1917, wish to give this expression to our feeling of profound sorrow; and be it further

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent by our secretary to Mrs. Haggett and her family, to the Classical Journal, and be incorporated in the minutes of this meeting.
