Minutes of the Eighteenth Annual Meeting.

The morning session met in Room 217, Lincoln High School, Portland, Ore., December 28, 1928, at 9:45 a.m.

In the absence of Miss Norton who had been acting as temporary secretary, Dean F. L. Taylor of Pacific University, Forest Grove, Oregon was asked to act as secretary pro tem.

Only seven were present at the morning session: Professor H. B. Denmore and Dr. Francis E. Powers of the University of Washington; Professor Frederick S. Dunn, University of Oregon; Miss Annie Bergman Bend, Ore.; Professor W. E. Kirk, Willamette University, Salem, Ore.; Dean F. L. Taylor Pacific University, Forest Grove, Ore.; Miss Grace B. Townsend, Townsend School, Portland, Ore.

The program as printed and attached was carried out, Dr. Thomas R. Sidney's paper being read in his absence by Miss Bergman. Discussion followed each topic.

A business session was held before the noon hour. The following officers were elected, as many as possible being re-elected that they might use the experience of the past in next year's meeting. It was understood that the next meeting would be as part of the Classical Association of the Pacific States during the Christmas season of 1929.

President: Prof. H. B. Denmore, Univ. of Wash.

Vice-president: Dr. F. S. Dunn, Univ. of Ore.

Sec'y - Treas.: Miss Minna Bailey, Seattle

Members of the executive committee:

Miss Vaughn McCormick, Portland, Miss Helen L. Dean, Spokane; Miss Jessie Keith, Seattle.

Adjournment at 12:05 p.m.

Afternoon session: The session opened promptly at 1:30 and papers of great interest and profit were presented as scheduled on the program. Discussion was had on the various papers and an especially practical one was that of suggestions of how to arouse interest in the classics, especially with those who are teaching the subject. The possibility of a publication for the classics only was suggested as a possible way of attaining this object. Miss Edith B. Patten offered to distribute such a one as a University of Oregon bulletin if material could be furnished for it.

Adjournment

F. L. Taylor, secretary pro tem.

Minutes of the Nineteenth Annual Meeting

The Classical Association of the Pacific States met in joint session with its Northern Branch in Room 300, Denny Hall, University of Washington, December 30, 1929, Professor H. B. Densmore, presiding.

The program as previously announced and herewith inserted was carried out, with the exception that Professor Farley's paper was not read in full. He stated in a few words the conclusions at which he arrived in the paper and then read a brief letter purported to have been written by Dido, implying a different estimate of her character, from that usually accepted. Miss Bailey read Dr. Hoffleit's paper, in his absence.

The attendance at the noon luncheon was 27, and at both morning and afternoon sessions, somewhat larger. Much interest was shown in the papers, those of Prof. Read on Caesar, as a Political Pamphlet, and of Dr. Clark on the Classicist's Job Today in which he advocated a purely reading method of language teaching, all study of grammar being omitted, in particular calling forth discussion.

During the morning session the president appointed as a nominating committee Dean Farley, Dr. Clark and Miss Helen Dean whose report naming officers for both the general Association and the Northern ^{Section} Branch was unanimously adopted at the business meeting held near the close of the afternoon session. The following officers were elected; PACIFIC STATES: Dr. Frederick Mason Carey, University of California at Los Angeles, president; Prof. Fred L. Farley, College of the Pacific, secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth B. De Kruij, Los Angeles, Prof. H. B. Densmore, University of Washington, and Miss Claire Thursby, Oakland, members of the executive committee.

NORTHERN SECTION: Prof. Frederick S. Dunn, University of Oregon, president; Miss Winona Bailey, secretary; Miss Helen Dean, Spokane, Miss Irene Campbell, Portland, Dr. Francis Powers, University of Washington, Dr. W. P. Clark, University of Montana, and Dr. Harold Axtell, University of Idaho, members of the executive committee.

The resignation of Dr. Nutting as editor of the Classical Journal for the Pacific States was accepted and Dr. McKimley named in his place.

The report of the secretary-treasurer of the Northern Section was read showing a balance of $40⁶⁴ in the treasury, and a membership to date of 86. Report accepted. It was moved and carried that the secretary-treasurer be authorized to use sufficient money for postage to continue the campaign for new members in the spring of 1930. Adjournment.
