Minutes of the Twenty-fifth Annual Meeting of the Classical Association of the Pacific States.

The twenty-fifth annual meeting of the Northern Section of the Classical Association of the Pacific States in joint session with the Classical Association of the Pacific States was held in Room 6, Johnson Hall, University of Washington, December 27, 1935.

The meeting was called to order at 9:45 with Dr. Thomas K. Sider, president of the Classical Association of the Pacific States, presiding. He called attention to the material on display, sent by the Classical Bureau and read the winning poems of the Horace contest, after which the program as printed and inserted followed.

Luncheon was held at 12:30 at the Edmond Meany Hotel.

The afternoon session was called to order at 2:00 P.M. by Mrs. Genevieve K. Ballaine, president of the Northern Section. After the papers on the program were read, a short business meeting was held. The secretary-treasurer's report was read and accepted. The following officers of the Northern Section were elected:—

President, Professor Frederic S. Dunn, U. of Oregon
Vice president, Miss Celia Davis, Portland
Secretary-treasurer, Miss Genevieve Kate Campbell, Portland

A suggestion was made by Dean Frank C. Taylor that the date of the meetings be changed to a date in the spring. Decision to be made later.

Dean Fred L. Farley, secretary-treasurer of the Classical Association of the Pacific States read his report. The following were elected as officers:—

President, Miss Dorothy Williams, Highland High School.

Secretary-treasurer, Dean Fred L. Farley, College of the Pacific, Stockton, California.
 Executive committee: — Miss Jane McKeen Infield, Los Angeles; Miss Celie Davis, Portland;
 Mr. Ralph Hofmeister, Stockton, California.
 Adjournment at 4:30.
 Grace G. Norton —
 Secretary-treasurer of Northern Section.

Minutes of the Twenty-sixth Annual Meeting of the Northern Section of The Classical Association of the Pacific States held at Portland, Oregon December 29, 1936.

After a luncheon, sponsored by the Portland Classical Club, at Henry's, 2305 Burnside Street - 12:10 P.M. with Mrs. Julia Johnson as president, the group adjourned to Lincoln High School, Room 217 for a joint program of the Northern Section of the Classical Association of the Pacific States and the Classical Section of the Oregon State Teachers Association.

Since Professor Frederick S. Dunn, Univ. of Oregon was unable to attend the meeting on account of serious illness, the vice-president Celia Davis Grant High School, Portland, Oregon called the meeting to order.
Miss Davis called attention to the material on display, furnished by the Classical <sup>Review</sup> Bureau of New York Univ.
after which the program as printed and inserted followed. <sup>the attendance was 59.</sup> After the papers on the program were read, and after Rupert Drivell C. Pratt, Spokane W<sup>a</sup>, President of the National Education Association, had led a very stimulating discussion on "The Place of the Classics in Modern Education", a short business meeting was held. It was moved by Miss Catherine Calouri, Astoria, Oregon that a letter of sympathy be sent to Dr. Dunn. Motion carried. The Secretary-treasurer's report was read and accepted.
The following officers of the Northern Section were elected: -

President, Grace C. Norton, Roosevelt H. School, Seattle, Wash.
Vice-president, Professor W<sup>m</sup>. M. Read, University of Wash. " "
Secretary-treasurer, Catherine Calouri, Astoria, Oregon.

What is education about?

Cicero said that to be ignorant of what man has done is to remain always a boy

teacher's report

RESPONSIBILITIES CONFRONTING THE TEACHERS OF CAESAR AND CICERO TODAY

o--o

In view of modern educational theory:

Improvement of English reading and writing ability

Classics in English to supplement translated portions of authors?

Future men and women, or syntax?

Psychological complexes arising from stumbling and compulsion in reading drills

Connections with current issues:

Public works, agrarian reforms, the dole, popular leadership, fascism, communism, dictatorship, debt moratoriums and cancellations, imperialism, international diplomacy, international law, war

Citizenship taught by studying the contrasting types of statesmanship and manhood displayed in Caesar and Cicero

In view of the confusion of values held by modern education and by modern society in general:

What is education about?

Cicero said that to be ignorant of what man has done is to remain always a boy
