Program Notes:

Accommodations:

The Highlander Hotel, which offers university rates, is recommended. The entire membership's accommodation will be subsidized to a limit of $500. This will mean that about $10 can be deducted from the usual university rates of $39 for a single or $44 for a double or twin. Those members who would like to have accommodation arranged for them should fill out the registration form at the end of the Bulletin and mail it with their registration fees to Professor Yardley no later than 5 March 1982. The Highlander is about a fifteen minute walk from the University of Calgary.

Motel Village (about 10 minutes on foot from the University): for those who prefer to make their own arrangements, the following information is provided:

Hospitality Inn North (Indoor Pool, Saunas, Courtyard, Cocktail Lounge)
2359, 1a Hwy N.W. (Motel Village) Calgary, Telephone: (403) 289-1973
Rates: Single: $50, Double/Twin: $55

Royal Wayne (Cable T.V., Restaurant and Lounge)
2416 16th Ave. N.W. (Motel Village) Telephone: (403) 289-6651
Rates: Single: $28, Twin: $35, Double: $40

Circle Inn Motor Motel (Restaurant, Lounge, Cable T.V.)
2373 Banff Trail N.W. (Motel Village) Telephone: (403) 289-0295
Rates: Single: $28, Double/Twin: $32

Cascade Motel (Indoor Swimming Pool and Whirlpool, Restaurant and Lounge, Cable T.V.)
2363, 1a Hwy N.W. (Motel Village) Telephone: (403) 289-2581
Rates: Single: $38, Twin: $48, Double: $50

Transport:

Some members of the Calgary Department will be able to come to the airport to help with transportation (for this reason please note your time of arrival on the Registration Form). However, this will not be possible in every case, and should you find that you are not met at the airport, it would be best to take a Shamrock Taxi from there. This will cost about $12, but is still cheaper than taking the airport limousine from the airport into town and then taking a taxi to either the Highlander or the Motel Village.

Weather permitting, it should be possible to walk to the University from either the Highlander or the Motel Village (fifteen/twenty minutes for the former, ten for the latter).

The Business Meeting:

Some important items will be discussed at this year's business meeting. A formal agenda will be distributed at the meeting, but the following may require some prior thought:

1. Proposal that the University Press of America be approached to publish the proceedings of CAPN meetings.
2. Proposal from James Barthelme, Director of National Coordinating Office for Latin and Greek, that CAPN establish a placement service.
3. Promotion of APA teaching awards.

REPORT OF THE SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

Application requests and completed application forms have been received for both the grant in aid of materials for classics instruction and the grant in aid of Summer Study. The 1982 Awards will be announced early in April.

The members of the Scholarship Committee are Rochelle Snee, Chairman, Fred Cadman, Pauline Chamness, and Shirley Sullivan. The awards are granted to teachers of Latin at secondary schools and all inquiries should be directed to Prof. Rochelle Snee, Dept. of Modern and Classical Languages, Pacific Lutheran University, Tacoma, Washington 98447.

Other Organizations:

Pacific Northwest Council on Foreign Languages will hold the thirty-second Annual Conference on 6-8 May 1982 at the University of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta. Robert Schmiel of the University of Calgary will chair the Classical Literature Session.

Rocky Mountain Modern Language Association will meet on 21-23 October 1982 at the University of Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah, and will include two sessions of special interest to CAPN members: Classical Languages and Literature and The Classical Tradition.

For the Classical Languages and Literature Section:

Papers (15 minutes) on all aspects of Greek and Latin language and literature are invited. Please send the paper and 75 word abstract by April 15, 1982 to:

Prof. James T. Svendsen
Department of Languages
University of Utah
Salt Lake City, Utah 84112

For the Classical Tradition Section:

Scholars are invited to submit papers on authors, from the Middle Ages to the 20th Century, who have sustained a conversation through their own works with Greek and Roman texts of the Classical period. Adaptation, allusion, translation or interpretation are all possible forms of this relationship. Readings of individual works are welcome, but they should also raise or suggest larger issues, such as how the writer defined his relation to the past. Papers should be 5-7 pages in length (15-20 minutes' delivery time) and are due April 15, 1982 accompanied by 75 word abstract to:

Prof. Barry Weller
Department of English
University of Utah
Salt Lake City, Utah 84112

News and notes concerning any matters of interest to Classics teachers in undergraduate programs are invited for the Newsletter of the Committee on Smaller Classics Departments. Send material to Jerry Clack, Department of Classics, Editor GSCD Newsletter, Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, PA 15219.

It is time to be thinking of colleagues to nominate for the American Philological Association Awards for Excellence in Teaching. These awards were established in 1979 to enable the Association to give public expression to its commitment to honor and to foster excellence and outstanding energy in teaching. Complete dossiers [including letter of nomination and two or more additional letters of support (from colleagues, students, administrators), curriculum vitae, and descriptions or syllabi of representative courses] must reach the Secretary of the APA by 15 October 1982. All materials are to be submitted in quintuplicate to:

The Secretary
The American Philological Association
617 Hamilton Hall, Columbia University
New York, NY 10027.

The Classical Association of the Southwestern United States will hold the twelfth annual convention on 2 October 1982 at Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas. Papers are solicited in the following categories:

Greek and Roman Culture, Language, and Literature

Chair: Edward V. George
Department of Classical & Romance Languages
Texas Tech University
Lubbock, TX 79409

Latin Teaching and Contemporary Linguistics

Chair: Charles Elerick, Department of Linguistics
University of Texas at El Paso
El Paso, TX 79968

Please submit a 100-200 word description of your proposal to the appropriate section Chairperson by April 15, 1982. Length of papers proposed for reading should be about 15-20 minutes.
