Location of the Meeting

All events of the 22nd Annual Meeting of CAPN will take place in the Faculty Club of the University of British Columbia. The Club is located at the north end of the University campus, 6331 Crescent Road, just off Marine Drive. A map of the vicinity is attached. Parking is available in front of the Club and nearby.

Accommodation

A limited number of rooms are available on campus at the U.B.C. Conference Center. These rooms are a five-minute walk from the Faculty Club. A request for accommodation is attached. Please note that they must be booked by the first week of March.

A further block of rooms has been booked for CAPN members at the Ramada Inn, 898 West Broadway, Vancouver. Arrangements for these rooms should be made directly with the hotel (604-872-8661). The special rate offered by the hotel for the CAPN meeting is CD$ 67.00, plus 7% federal tax and 10% provincial tax. The Ramada Inn is two blocks from the route of the airport bus and is about twenty-five minutes from the U.B.C. campus by public transportation.

Registration and Management (1984) and Management (1984) and Management

There is a registration fee for all those attending the conference of US$10.00 or CD$12.00. The luncheon and other refreshments during the conference have been generously subsidized by the Faculty of Arts of U.B.C.

In order to facilitate the planning of the conference, the organizers request earnestly that you register in advance and by March 15th.

Please complete the registration form below and return it with the appropriate fee to Prof. H. G. Edinger, Department of Classics, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, B.C. Canada, V6T 1Z1. Checks should be made payable to "CAPN - UBC."

Announcements

Prospects Call for Submissions:

The National Committee for Latin and Greek solicits submissions for the Winter 1992 issue of its newsletter, Prospects. The issue will feature externally funded programs in the classics at all levels. Programs funded for any amount by private or public sources (national, state and local) are sought. Accounts by directors and/or participants are welcome. The intent is to demonstrate that money invested in programs for or by classicists has yielded considerable results. Deadline, March 1, 1992. Contact Gregory Neil Daugherty, Department of Classics, Randolph-Macon College, PO Box 5005, Ashland, VA 23005-5505; telephone 804-752-727; FAX 804-72-7231.

Tenth Annual CANE Summer Institute: July 6-16, 1992
Dartmouth College, Hanover, New Hampshire
"A Golden Age? The Triumph and Tragedy of Classical Athens."
J. C. Douglas Marshall, Director (St. Paul's School)
The CANE Institute is intended for teachers of the humanities and interested members of the general public. This summer will mark the CANE Institute's tenth anniversary. Many special events are being panned including a gala weekend reunion (July 10-12) to which all former institute students and faculty are most cordially invited. For further information contact Professor Allen Ward, Department of History, Box U-103, University of Connecticut, Storrs, CT 06269-2103.

The 1992 Institute is funded in part by the Classical Association of New England and the Humanities Councils of Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont.

Vergilian Society (Summer 1992)

There will be three sessions at the Villa Vergiliana, I: July 6-18; II: July 20-August 1; III: August 3-15. In addition there will be sessions in Turkey (June 29-July 11); Tunisia (June 27-July 10); Crete and Greece (July 9-27); and Hungary (August 1-15). The Vergilian Society announces an additional tour of Naples, Campania, and the Amalfi Drive (May 11-23). This tour has been organized with senior citizens in mind, but anyone "from seniors in college to nonagenarians" is invited to participate. There will be a symposium to mark the eightieth anniversary of the Villa Vergiliana (1912-1992) at Cuma, Italy, July 6-18, 1992. For further information, write Prof. Herbert Benario, The Vergilian Society, Box 2308, Emory University, Atlanta, GA 30322. Telephone: (404) 373-7436.

WED!

WEDNESDAY JUNE 3 NEW YORK

Travel on Olympic Airways non-stop to Athens, with departure in the evening from Kennedy International Airport.

THURSDAY JUNE 4 ATHENS

Our flight is scheduled to arrive at Athens International Airport in mid-afternoon. We will be met at the airport and escorted to the Hotel Divani Palace, where we may rest and perhaps take a swim in the hotel pool. In the early evening, we will have a chance to meet each other over drinks and dinner.

FRIDAY JUNE 5 ATHENS

We begin our program with introductory remarks from Prof. Schaus at the hotel. Then we drive to the Agora excavations, where a member of the ASCSA staff will introduce us to the site. After visiting the site and the Museum in the Stoa of Attalos, we will have lunch together at a nearby taverna and return to the hotel. At 4:30, we go to the School for a teatime orientation and visit to the Gennadius Library, followed by an evening buffet reception in the School garden.
